

Checklist for the first interview with your childminder

Contact details

First and last name:

Address:

Phone number:

Note: Make sure to ask to see the childminder's ID card at the first interview.

General information and motivation

Start by introducing yourself and give your childminder the opportunity to introduce herself.

Please tell us a little about yourself.

Why do you want to work as a childminder?

What do you like about working with children?

You can find more checklists
and forms in our Help Centre:
babysitting24.ch/forms

Experience and qualifications

What experience do you have in working with children?

How old were the children you looked after so far?

Have you attended a first-aid course?

yes

no

Have you had a difficult or critical situation with a child in the past,
and how did you deal with it?

Do you have references?

Do you have any further qualifications or certificates?

Questions about working with children

What would you do if the child had a tantrum?

What would you do if the child fell over or hurt themselves?

What would you do if the child didn't want to go to sleep?

What kind of activities do you like to do with children?

How do you keep things fun on grey, rainy days?

Availability and salary

Clarify when and for how long the childminder is available and what salary you both would expect. It is best to consider your expectations of the childminder before the first meeting and discuss them together. How often and for how long will the children be cared for? Are there other tasks that should be taken on, such as cooking or picking up the children?

What kind of workload can you imagine?

Are there any restrictions regarding the days and hours you can work?

Can you also do other jobs, such as cooking? (if relevant)

We agree on the following hourly wage: _____ CHF gross

Insurance

Is your activity as a childminder covered by liability insurance?

Good to know!

Find more forms and checklists at babysitting24.ch/forms
– or simply scan the QR code.

